

Eunice Mina Escobar Bio

Eunice Mina Escobar is a financial professional with more than 28 years in public service and a grassroots activist and organizer, co-founder of Cuentos Foundation, an organization created to provide a venue to local artists in Chicago and Mexico. Eunice is involved in solidarity work with the Afro-Colombians and indigenous communities, and the Coalition In Solidarity with Latin-American (CESLA). Eunice had led multiple delegations to Colombia, primarily of People of Color, to visit indigenous and Afro-Colombian territories changing solidarity models and connecting the struggles of the African diaspora. Eunice has a bachelor's degree from Universidad del Valle in Colombia and a master's degree in Public Administration from Illinois Institute of Technology in Chicago. She is also the past president of the Chicago chapter of the Conference of Minority Transportation Officials, an organization in charge of supporting minorities to level the playfield for people of color in the transportation industry.
